RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR HOSTEL MESS

To ensure the smooth, hygienic, and efficient functioning of the hostel mess, all boarders are required to strictly adhere to the following rules and regulations. Non-compliance will lead to disciplinary action and financial penalties.

1. Mess Timings

Boarders must strictly adhere to the designated mess timings. No food will be served before or after the scheduled hours.

Meal	Timings
Breakfast	08:00 AM – 09:00 AM
Lunch	01:30 PM – 02:30 PM
Tea & Snacks	05:30 PM – 06:15 PM
Dinner	08:30 PM – 09:30 PM

2. General Discipline & Code of Conduct

- Entry & Dress Code: Boarders must enter the dining hall in clean and appropriate attire..
- Self-Service: The mess operates on a self-service basis. Boarders must queue up orderly to receive their meals.
- Biometric/Coupon System: Every boarder must mark their attendance via the biometric system or produce their mess card/coupon before taking meals.
- Property Damage: Mishandling of mess property, including water coolers, fans, tables, and chairs, will attract a heavy fine along with the cost of recovery.

3. Food Hygiene & Wastage

- No Food in Rooms: Food, crockery, or utensils must not be taken out of the dining hall to hostel rooms under any circumstances.
 - Exception: In case of severe illness, permission may be granted by the Hostel Warden to serve food in the room using the student's personal utensils.

- Zero Wastage Policy: Food is a precious resource. Boarders should only take what they can consume. Repeated and intentional wastage of food will invite financial penalties.
- Outside Food: Outside catering or bringing external cooked food items into the dining hall is not allowed.

4. Mess Off & Rebate Rules

- Minimum Committment: A boarder must eat a minimum number of days per month (as decided by the Mess Committee) to be eligible for a mess rebate.
- Prior Intimation: If a boarder plans to leave the hostel during official vacations, institutional holidays, or approved academic leave, they must apply for "Mess Off" via the Mess Rebate Register at least 48 hours in advance.
- Emergency Leave: In case of sudden medical emergencies, the rebate will be considered post-facto upon submission of a valid medical certificate co-signed by the Warden.

5. Mess Committee & Menu Planning

- Student Representation: The mess menu is managed by a student-led Mess Committee, supervised by the Hostel Superintendent/Warden.
- Menu Modifications: The menu will be reviewed and updated monthly to ensure nutritional balance and variety. No individual boarder has the right to force the mess staff to change the daily menu.
- Grievance Redressal: Any complaints regarding food quality, under-cooking, or hygiene must be logged in the Mess Complaint Register kept in the dining hall, or brought directly to the notice of the Hostel Warden. Boarders must not argue or misbehave with the cook or mess staff.

6. Financial Discipline & Mess Dues

- Timely Payment: Mess bills will be generated and displayed on the notice board by the 5th of every month. Boarders must clear their dues by the 15th of every month.
- Late Fine: A daily or flat late fee will be levied for payments made after the due date.
- Defaulters: Continuous non-payment of mess dues for more than two months will lead to the suspension of mess facilities and the matter will be escalated to the Institution Principal for academic hold.

7. Strict Restrictions (Zero Tolerance)

- Entry into the Kitchen: No boarder is permitted to enter the kitchen area or storage room under any circumstances due to safety and hygiene reasons.
- Ragging/Bullying: Any form of ragging, harassment, or verbal abuse directed toward junior students or mess employees (cooks, cleaners, servers) will result in immediate expulsion from the hostel and referral to the Anti-Ragging Committee.
